Scope of Protection

The following elements are covered under copyright and/or related rights:

- Texts, images, videos, graphics, audio, animations
- Website structure, design, layout, and navigation
- Source code, scripts, software components, databases, APIs
- All legal documents including the Privacy Policy, Cookie Policy, Legal Notice, and all related texts and disclaimers
- The visual design, layout, user interface, typography, and graphic identity of the domain <https://bsduskills.edu.in>

This explicitly includes official legal documents 01–09 of Bhartiya Skill Development University.

Any copying, modifying, translating, publishing, or derivative use of these contents — including templates, clones, white-label implementations, or AI-generated policy derivatives — is strictly prohibited without prior written consent.

Third-Party Content & Open-Source Licenses

Some elements (e.g., icons, stock photos, scripts) may be licensed from third parties or published under open-source licenses (e.g., MIT, GPL, Creative Commons). Such content is marked accordingly, and the associated license terms must be followed without exception.

Media Containing Personal Data

Images, audio, or video content that displays identifiable individuals is considered personal data under data protection laws. Its use is governed by our:

- [Global Privacy Policy]
- [Cookie Policy]
- [Social Media Plugins Policy]
- [Gender & Inclusion Statement]

Publication or redistribution of such media is only permitted with documented explicit consent of the data subject.

Technical Protection Measures

To safeguard our digital assets, this website actively prevents:

- Scraping, automated data harvesting, and mass duplication
- Framing, embedding, or mirroring by external domains
- Reuse of policy texts or layout structures in external systems (e.g., policy generators, AI tools, or template services)

Violations will be pursued under applicable civil and criminal law.
